Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT
(DR. MAHENDRA NATH PANDEY)

- (a) & (b): The Government has not conducted any survey in this regard but there is a perception that not all engineering graduates are getting employment.
- (c) & (d): Several steps are being taken by the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) for improving the employability of the students coming out of the technical institutions. This includes the initiatives like National Employability Enhancement Mission (NEEM) and Employability Enhancing Training Programme (EETP). Apart from this, AICTE Council has approved a host of measures in their meeting on 14th March 2017 consisting of: mandatory internships, curriculum revision in consultation with Industry and industryreadiness training at the end of their course, which will improve the employability of the students coming out the technical institutions
- (e) & (f): There were no committee constituted for this purpose.
